

DON'T GET YOUR VICARS IN A TWIST

Scothern Players are back in action!

After an 18-month unforeseen break due to the pandemic of the century, Scothern Players have resumed rehearsals for their long-awaited farce Don't Get Your Vicars in a Twist. What happens when the vicar is away? The church wardens arrange a murder mystery weekend at the vicarage, of course. But, when the bishop makes a surprise visit, identities get confused and mayhem ensues! We hope we can do justice to a hilarious and clever script by Ann Gawthorpe and Lesley Bown.

Barring further restrictions, this comedy play will be staged, for your enjoyment, on 6th, 7th, 12th and 13th November at Scothern Village Hall. Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start. Tickets are a mere £9 and are available at www.scothernplayers.org.uk or by calling 01673 861412.

To reassure those of a cautious disposition, we have reduced our seating capacity to give you more breathing space. Masks may be worn if you wish.

Come along and enjoy the experience of live entertainment, something you have been denied since Covid first reared its ugly head. So, don't miss the best laughs since... well, since we could laugh in public without a mask!
