

NETBALL NEWS

Following what seems like the longest pre-season ever, the competitive netball leagues have now made a comeback with Lincolnshire County league starting on 18th September and the Lincoln netball league on 21st September.

Qualifiers for the Junior East Midlands U16 league took place on 19th September. At the time of writing it is unknown whether teams representing Lincolnshire have qualified.

School netball has also made a comeback after an academic year with no competition.

William Farr's school team trials went ahead on Monday 13th September for Years 9, 10 and 11 and on Tuesday 14th September for Years 7 and 8.
